

Audit Committee Charter

I. PURPOSE

The function of the Audit Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of AngioDynamics, Inc. (the "Corporation") is to:

- Assist the Board in its oversight of (i) the integrity of the Corporation's financial statements, financial reporting process, system of internal controls over financial reporting, and audit process, (ii) the Corporation's compliance with, and process for monitoring compliance with, legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the independent auditors' quarterly reviews, qualifications and independence, (iv) the performance of the Corporation's internal audit, (v) compliance with ethical standards adopted by the Corporation, and (vi) policies and procedures for risk assessment and risk management.
- Provide an open avenue of communication for management, internal audit, the independent auditors and the Board.
- Prepare the report of the Committee required to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

II. COMPOSITION

- The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board, all of whom shall be appointed by the Board. The members of the Committee shall each have been determined by the Board to be "independent" under the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules (the "NASDAQ Rules") and under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "2002 Act").
- The members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board shall select the Chair of the Committee based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.
- In selecting the members of the Committee, the Board shall also determine (i) that each member is able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, (ii) that at least one member has "accounting or related financial management expertise," and "accounting or related financial experience," in each case in accordance with the NASDAQ Rules, and (iii) to the extent required by the applicable SEC rules, that at least one member of the Committee is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by the SEC and is financially sophisticated in accordance with the NASDAQ Rules (or if there is no such member, the reason for not having an audit committee financial expert on the Committee).
- No director may serve as a member of the Committee if such director serves on the audit committees of more than two other public companies unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to serve effectively on the Committee, and discloses this determination in the Corporation's annual proxy statement.

III. MEETINGS

- The Committee shall meet at least four (4) times annually and each time the Company proposes to issue a press release with its quarterly or annual earnings information and will be available to meet more frequently as circumstances require.
- The Committee will meet regularly with management, including the CEO, CFO, Internal Audit Director and the independent auditors in private sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee and each of these groups believe should be discussed privately.
- The Committee may invite such members of management, auditors and other persons to its meetings as it may deem desirable or appropriate. The Committee's chairperson shall report regularly to the Board summarizing the Committee's actions and any significant issues considered by the Committee.
- A quorum at any meeting of the Committee shall consist of a majority of the members. All determinations of the Committee shall be by a majority of the members present at a meeting duly called or held.
- An agenda, together with materials relating to the subject matter of each meeting, shall be sent to members of the Committee prior to each meeting. Minutes for all meetings of the Committee shall be prepared to document the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities. The minutes shall be circulated in draft form to all Committee members to ensure an accurate final record, and shall be approved at a subsequent meeting of the Committee.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following functions shall be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities outlined in Section I of this Charter. The Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time related to the purposes of the Committee outlined in Section I of this Charter.

The Committee, in discharging its oversight role, is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that it deems appropriate. The Committee shall have the authority to retain outside legal, accounting or other advisors for this or any other purpose, including the authority to approve the fees payable to such advisors and any other terms or retention.

The Committee shall be given full access to the Company's internal audit group, management, personnel and independent auditors as necessary to carry out these responsibilities. While acting within the scope of its stated purpose, the Committee shall have all the authority of the Board.

Documents/Reports Review

- Review this charter at least annually and recommend to the board of directors any necessary amendments
- Review with management and the independent auditors, prior to public dissemination, the Company's annual audited financial statements and any quarterly financial statements and reports, including the Company's disclosures under the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and a discussion with the independent auditors of the matters required to be discussed by PCAOB AS 16 "Communications with Audit Committees", as applicable;
- Review and discuss with management and the independent auditors the Company's earnings press releases as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies, paying particular attention to any pro forma or adjusted non-GAAP information;
- Inquire of the CEO and CFO regarding the "quality of earnings" of the Company from a subjective and objective standpoint;
- Perform any functions required to be performed by it or otherwise appropriate under applicable law, rules or regulations, the Company's by-laws or other organizational documents and the resolutions or other directives of the Board, including review of any certification required to be reviewed in accordance with applicable law or regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Independent Auditors

- Retain (and terminate, as the case may be) the Company's independent auditors (subject to shareholder ratification) and approve all audit engagement fees and terms. The independent auditor will report directly to the committee.
- Oversee the work of any registered public accounting firm employed by the Company, including the resolution of any disagreement between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting, for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work;
- Review with the independent auditor, the CFO, the controller of the Company and the Director of Internal Audit, the audit scope and plans of the internal auditors and independent auditors. Address the coordination of efforts to assure the completeness of coverage, reduction of redundant effort and the collective use of audit resources.
- Review all material written communications between the independent auditors and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.
- Approve, in advance, any audit and any permissible non-audit engagement or relationship between the Company and the independent auditors. The authority to grant preapproval may be delegated to one or more designated members of the audit committee, whose decisions will be presented to the audit committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.
- Review, at least annually, the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditors. In conducting its review and evaluation, the Committee should:
 - Obtain and review a report by the Company's independent auditors describing: (i) the auditing firm's internal quality-control procedures; (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the auditing firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the auditing firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and (iii) all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company (so as to enable the assessment of the independent auditors' independence);
 - Ensure that the independent auditors have a process in place to ensure the rotation of the lead audit partner and reviewing partner on at least that schedule required by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board or any other applicable authority.
 - Take into account the opinions of management and the Company's internal auditors (or of other personnel responsible for the internal audit function); and
 - Receive from the independent auditors such written statements as required by PCAOB Ethics and Independence rules.
- Assess whether the independent auditor is consistently demonstrating objectivity and professional skepticism in the performance of its work.
- Review with the independent auditors any audit problems or difficulties and management's response; and
- Set clear hiring policies to be implemented by the Company for employees or former employees of the independent auditors to ensure the independence of the Company's outside auditors is not compromised under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Financial Reporting Process and Controls

- Review, in consultation with the independent auditors and the internal auditors, the integrity of the Company's internal and external financial reporting processes and controls. In this regard, the Committee should obtain and discuss with management and the independent auditors all reports from management and the independent auditors regarding: (i) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used by the Company; (ii) analyses prepared by management and/or the independent auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with the Company's management, the ramifications of the use of the alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditors; (iii) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles; (iv) major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any specific audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies; and (v) any other material written communications between the independent auditor and the Company's management;
- Receive and review any disclosure from the company's CEO and CFO made in connection with the certification of the company's quarterly and annual reports filed with the SEC of: a) significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting that are reasonably likely to adversely affect the company's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data; and b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the company's internal controls.
- Review periodically with management and the independent auditors the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures (if any), on the financial statements of the Company;
- Establish regular system of reporting to the Committee by each of management, the independent auditors and the internal auditors regarding any significant judgments made in management's preparation of the financial statements and any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the review or audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to requested information;
- Review any significant disagreement between management and the independent auditors or the internal auditing department in connection with the preparation of the financial statements and management's response to such matters; and
- Review and discuss with the independent auditors the responsibilities, adequacy of budget and staffing of the Company's internal audit function.

Internal Audit

- Ensure the Company maintains (either as an internal function or as an outsourced service) an internal audit function.
- Review and advise on the selection and removal of the Director of Internal Audit.
- Review with management and the Director of Internal Audit (i) significant findings on internal audit during the year and management's response thereto, (ii) any difficulty the internal audit team encountered in the course of their audits, including any restrictions on scope of their work or access to required information (iii) the internal audit department budget and staffing (iv) the internal audit department charter and (v) internal audit's compliance with the Institute of Internal Auditing Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing.
- Periodically review, with the independent auditor, the internal audit function's responsibility, budget, and staffing

Legal /Compliance/General

- Review, with the Company's counsel, any legal matter that could have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements or operations;
- Discuss with management and the independent auditors the Company's guidelines and policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management. Review policies and procedures with respect to enterprise risk assessment and risk management, including, but not limited to, major litigation and financial risks, quality risks and information security and technology risks (including cybersecurity), it being understood that it is the job of management to assess and manage the Company's exposure to risk and that the Committee's responsibility is to review policies and procedures by which risk assessment and management are undertaken. In addition, review key enterprise risks on an annual basis, and discuss with management the steps taken to monitor and control high risks on a quarterly basis.
- Oversee the Company's compliance program and adherence to its Code of Business Ethics. This shall include a review and investigation of any matters pertaining to the integrity of management, including conflicts of interest;
- Establish procedures for the Company's Whistleblower policy including: (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters; and
- Review and approve all related party transactions, defined as those transactions required to be disclosed under Items 404(a) and (b) of Regulation S-K, NYSE Rule 314.00, and NASDAQ Corporate Governance Rule 5630. Discuss with the independent auditor its evaluation of the Company's identification of, accounting for, and disclosure of its relationships with related parties as set forth under the standards of the PCAOB.

Reports

- Prepare all reports of it to be included in the Company's proxy statement, pursuant to and in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission;
- Report regularly to the Board:
 - with respect to any issues that arise regarding the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, the performance and independence of the Company's independent auditors or the performance of the internal audit function;
 - following all meetings of the Committee;
 - with respect to such other matters that are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities; and
- Maintain minutes or other records of meetings and activities of the Committee.
- Oversee the preparation of an annual report of the Audit Committee as required by the rules of the SEC and the annual affirmation required by the listing exchange, if necessary. Include in the annual Proxy Statement of the Company a report of the Committee in accordance with the SEC proxy rules.

Annual Performance Evaluation

The Committee shall perform a review and evaluation, at least annually, of its performance and that of its members, including reviewing the compliance of the Committee with this Charter. In addition, the Committee shall review and reassess, at least annually, the adequacy of this Charter and recommend to the Board any improvements to this Charter that the Committee considers necessary or valuable.

Updated November 2017