

AngioDynamics Expands Senior Leadership Team

ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 8, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AngioDynamics (Nasdaq:ANGO), a leading provider of innovative, minimally invasive medical devices for vascular access, surgery, peripheral vascular disease and oncology, appointed Matthew Kapusta, Senior Vice President of Business Development, effective November 15, 2011, and Donna Haire, Senior Vice President of Regulatory, Quality, Clinical and Medical Affairs, effective immediately. Mr. Kapusta and Ms. Haire will report to President and CEO Joseph M. DeVivo.

"Matt and Donna are immensely talented and seasoned executives with significant experience in the global medical device industry," said Mr. DeVivo. "We look forward to their leadership, as well as the work they will do to advance the Company's growth through the expansion of our product portfolio and NanoKnife® System clinical program."

Mr. Kapusta, 39, has advised on more than 50 transactions valued at over $6 billion. While most recently serving as Vice President of Strategic Planning and Financial Analysis for Smith & Nephew Orthopaedics, he formed the Business Intelligence and Analytics team responsible for developing data-driven insights and understanding of business performance, such as surgeon attrition, sales force productivity and asset efficiency. Mr. Kapusta also spearheaded strategic and financial planning for Smith & Nephew's global Hips, Knees and Trauma franchises, identifying significant cost efficiencies that were reinvested to fund key strategic initiatives.

Prior to Smith & Nephew, Mr. Kapusta was a Managing Director of Healthcare Investment Banking at Collins Stewart in New York City. He also previously served as Vice President of Healthcare Mergers and Acquisitions at Wells Fargo Securities, and had similar roles at Robertson Stephens and PaineWebber.

Ms. Haire, 42, most recently served as Senior Director of Quality, Regulatory and Sustainability at Philips Healthcare subsidiary Global Diagnostic X-Ray in Hamburg, Germany. As a turn-around-leader, she increased compliance and strengthened accountability by driving culture change and the redesign of the Quality Management System. Ms. Haire was also the Imaging Systems Corporate Director of Regulatory, Quality, Clinical and Standards for Philips Healthcare for 21 sites world-wide, successfully creating and executing global regulatory and clinical strategies.

Prior to Philips, Ms. Haire was Director of Regulatory Affairs, Technical Communications and Compliance Engineering at Medtronic Emergency Response Systems in Redmond, Wash., leading the regulatory team in obtaining FDA market clearance for multiple products within six months. Previously she held leadership positions at Avery Dennison Medical and STERIS Corporation.
